

National Association of Plant Breeders
2011 Awards Announcement

The National Association of Plant Breeders (NAPB) is pleased to announce its Awards Program for 2011. This year the NAPB is sponsoring two awards that will be presented at our Annual Meeting May 23-25 at Texas A&M University, College Station, TX.

Early Career Award - recognizing a successful individual active in the plant breeding field.

Life Time Achievement Award - recognizing an individual who has given distinguished long-term service to the plant breeding field in such areas as research, education, outreach and leadership.

These awards will highlight the achievements of individuals and are not based on the nature or source of employment. The nominee does not have to be a member of the NAPB.

A description of each award and the procedures for nominating a candidate are included with this announcement and on our website <http://www.plantbreeding.org/napb/Awards/Awards.html> Annual NAPB Meeting information can also be found at the meeting site <http://www.plantbreeding.org/napb/Meetings/Meetings.html>

Nominations are currently being accepted and the final deadline is March 1, 2011 (5:00 pm Pacific time). For inquiries or questions please contact the Awards Chair Karen Moldenhauer.
